JAVIER JAMES

REAL ESTATE

Description

The property is a contemporary building project that seamlessly blends Mediterranean materials with contemporary design and quality standards. Situated in a picturesque wine-growing area, the residence offers breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains. Its location ensures excellent connectivity to Binissalem, and convenient access to the motorway provides easy travel to Palma or Pollensa.

The main house is designed as a single-storey structure with high ceilings, providing a spacious and open living environment. Additionally, there is a substantial basement, offering ample space for various purposes. A key feature of the property is the expansive covered terrace located by the pool. The pool itself is an impressive 25 meters in length, making it one of the largest on the island.

The interior of the house boasts top-notch furnishings and high-quality equipment, meeting the standards of modern living. The property description invites interested parties to refer to the detailed building description for more comprehensive information about the features, layout, and specifications of the house. Overall, this modern property promises a luxurious and comfortable lifestyle in a stunning Mediterranean setting.
